Messrs. Chapman Bros,

Dear Friends: I am under the impression if you convince Mr. English, of Camden, N. J., that you can prove by any possible marks or scratches on the #10. gold Moffet Coin that it is the one stolen from your house, he will be willing to return it.

I understood Mr. Harry to say yesterday he could verify the piece by scratches. I believe this will be the way to become straightened out, and will open the way for a conviction of the party guilty of the depredation; and I can't believe that Mr. English will insist upon the retention of the piece if you convince in the above manner that it is piece taken from your home.

Sincerely yours, R. M. Sharp

Dear Sirs:- On behalf of a friend who is very much interested in 'z dollars, I asked you to submit a fine 1839 for approval. You sent two, neither of which are to his taste. I return the same to you, with thanks for submitting.

I'm still interested in old colonial pieces - but this season of the year is such a busy one with me that time prohibits frequent calls at Broad & Pine. Nevertheless I'm always glad to see any new old ones -

Sincerely yours.
